Love is why we're here

Love is why we give

 The greatest act of giving was Jesus giving His life

He continues to give to us

 When we have God's love we have His love for His people

 Love requires that we do something when we see needs

 Loving in action and truth means using what God has blessed us with to bless others

 How might God use your gifts (big and small) to meet needs at Advent and the world